

United States

Daily deaths are included with estimated and reported weekly excess mortality shown as dashed black lines. The red line represents median model estimates of daily deaths, and the shaded region represents the 95% quantiles of the estimated deaths. Plots of the cumulative estimated deaths are also shown.